That is true; and as to that we have therefore suffi-cient unity of opinion. The Thirteenth amendment no one would dispute, except on the ground of its being the Legislature—everything was given of slavery is a war result not disputed to other division a preconcerted aror sought to be avoided or changed by anybody. The Fourteenth amendment is an ex post facto law, the prinof the power of Congress to remove disabilities, in view of the coming general amnesty, and the promise of Democratic control, there is no difficulty about union on the basis of laying the issue aside as wholly unnecessary to and out of the coming canvass. This should have sufficed, and to secure Southern Democratic unity, must suffice. So of the Fifteenth amendment, Its monstrous usurpation of power to the Federal Government to control the franchise, and thus the domestic government of the States, can never be conceded by any true or States Right Democrat. The war-making power might, with as much sembiance of legality, be taken from the Federal Government by a pretended "amendment" to the Constitution, as the right of domestic control in the most essential point, that of the frauchise, be taken from a State. It is not legally competent to destroy the Constitution by patching it over with amendments. And when these assume the shape of a palpable deprivation of rights, no true Democrat will concede their legality, much less consent to withhold all remonstrance, and carry a gag for free speecn whenever the tabooed subject is mentioned. Are indorsed and prescribed by more isading Physicians than any other touls or stimulant now in use. They are A SURE PREVENTIVE for Fever and Ague, Intermittents Billionsness, and all disorders arising from Missinatic causes. They are highly recommonded as an anti-dyspeptic, and in cases of indigosition are invaluable as an Appeliae and Recuperant, and in cases of General be billy they have hever in a single instance failed in producing the most happy results They are particularly BENEFICIAL TO FE MALES, strengthening the body, invigorating the mind, and giving ione and elasticity to the whole system. The HOME BITTER are compounded with the greatest care, am no Toure Stimulant has ever been offered to the public SO PLEASANT TO THE TASTE and at the same time conditing so many remedial agents, indexeed by the medical trafernity as the best known to the Pharanco posia. It costs little to give them a fair trial and physicians in the country:

St. Louis, July, 1878.—JAMES A. JACKSON & CU.: Gentlemen—As you have communicated to the medical profession the recipe of the "Home Bitters." A cannot, therefore, be considered as a secret or patent medicine, no patent having been taken for it. We have examined the formula for making the "Home Bitters," and mn. estiatingly say the combination is one of rare excellence, all the atticles used in its composition are the best of the class to which they belong, being highly Tonie, Stimulant, Stomachie, Carminative and slightly Laxative. The mode of prepareing them is strictly in accordance with the rules of pharmacy. Having used them, seen its effect in our private practice, we take pleasure in recommending them to all persons desirous of taking fitters, as being the public.

We cheerfully concur with every word contained in the above lestimonial.
